

Press release
Paris, September 2025

Mondial Relay appoints David Lewkowitz as CEO

Mondial Relay, part of the InPost group, European leader in e-commerce solutions announces the appointment of David Lewkowitz as CEO. Responsible for all Mondial Relay's activities (France, Belgium and Luxembourg), he will play a key role in driving the company's strategy. His mission will be to strengthen Mondial Relay's position, accelerate its transformation, and continue disrupting the e-commerce delivery market.

Michael Rouse, InPost International CEO, commented: "We are delighted to welcome David to Mondial Relay at such an important stage in the company's development. His strong background and leadership in logistics will be key assets as we strengthen Mondial Relay's position across Europe. I am confident David will successfully drive our strategy, accelerate transformation, and contribute to shaping the future of e-commerce delivery within the InPost Group."

Bringing an extensive experience, David Lewkowitz most recently served as Supply Chain Operations Director for Amazon Europe. In his journey, he held several high-level positions, demonstrating his ability to drive operational excellence. Notably, he served until 2024 as President of Amazon France Logistique. Earlier in his career, David was a consultant at Bain & Company. He holds an MBA from INSEAD, advanced degrees from the University of California, Berkeley, as well as from École Centrale de Paris.

"I have long followed the development of Mondial Relay and InPost and appreciate the Group's energy and momentum, which go far beyond APM and Pick-up Points. The vision, ambition, and speed with which Mondial Relay has become a leader in France demonstrate the strength of its teams. In the coming months, I want to reflect on how to leverage InPost's advancements to further develop Mondial Relay. My ambition is to contribute to Mondial Relay's strategic vision: to shape the future of e-commerce delivery in Europe by combining innovation, operational excellence and customer-centricity" says David Lewkowitz.

David Lewkowitz will be accompanied in his mission by Jean-François Dohogne, Chief Financial Officer, whose experience gained at Carrefour and BPost will be a major asset in supporting Mondial Relay's growth and transformation strategy.

CONTACTS PRESSE

Chloé Lapeyre

06 07 40 41 48

mondialrelay@marie-antoinette.fr

ABOUT MONDIAL RELAY: <https://www.avis-verifies.com/avis-clients/mondialrelay.fr>

Present in France, Belgium and Luxembourg, Mondial Relay has an extensive network of nearly 20,000 local collection points and works with more than 50,000 e-retailers. In France, Mondial Relay is the market leader in APM with more than 8,000 units across the country and has a network of 9,000 Points Relais® (Mondial Relay's registered trademark). The company is focused on continuously improving the consumer experience and promoting more sustainable forms of last-mile delivery. In July 2021, InPost successfully completed the acquisition of Mondial Relay to create Europe's leading out-of-home delivery network for e-commerce. In 2024, Mondial Relay handled 267 million parcels, helping the InPost Group exceed one billion parcels for the first time. In the first quarter of 2025, the InPost Group's parcel volume reached 272 million, a 12% year-on-year increase, surpassing the growth of the e-commerce market in its key territories.

ABOUT InPost S.A.

InPost (Euronext Amsterdam: INPST) has revolutionised e-commerce parcel delivery in Poland and is now one of the leading out-of-home e-commerce enablement platforms in Europe. Founded in 1999 by Rafał Brzoska, InPost provides delivery services through our network of more than 50,000 Automated Parcel Machines ("APMs") in nine countries across Europe as well as to-door courier and fulfilment services to e-commerce merchants. InPost's locker machines provide consumers with a cheaper and more flexible, convenient, environmentally friendly and contactless delivery option.